Rehearsals for the district one-act play, "The Male Animal," which was eliminated in regional competition.

LITERARY

Although plays aren't all of it, seems play pictures are all The Eyrie gets of it.

Interscholastic League "literary" competition, parallel to sports, draws students in such varied fields as speech, typing, shorthand, slide rule, number sense, spelling and plain writing, and journalism.

Smiley had entries in all but one of the contests and many went as far as regional. Only two reached state.

COMPETITION

First Row: Sandra Hanna, Betty McCann, Eva Cunningham;
Second Row: Mrs. Sullivan, Cindy Bowie, Jean Martin, Delbert Long, Patricia Teas, Pat Lee, Linda Henry.

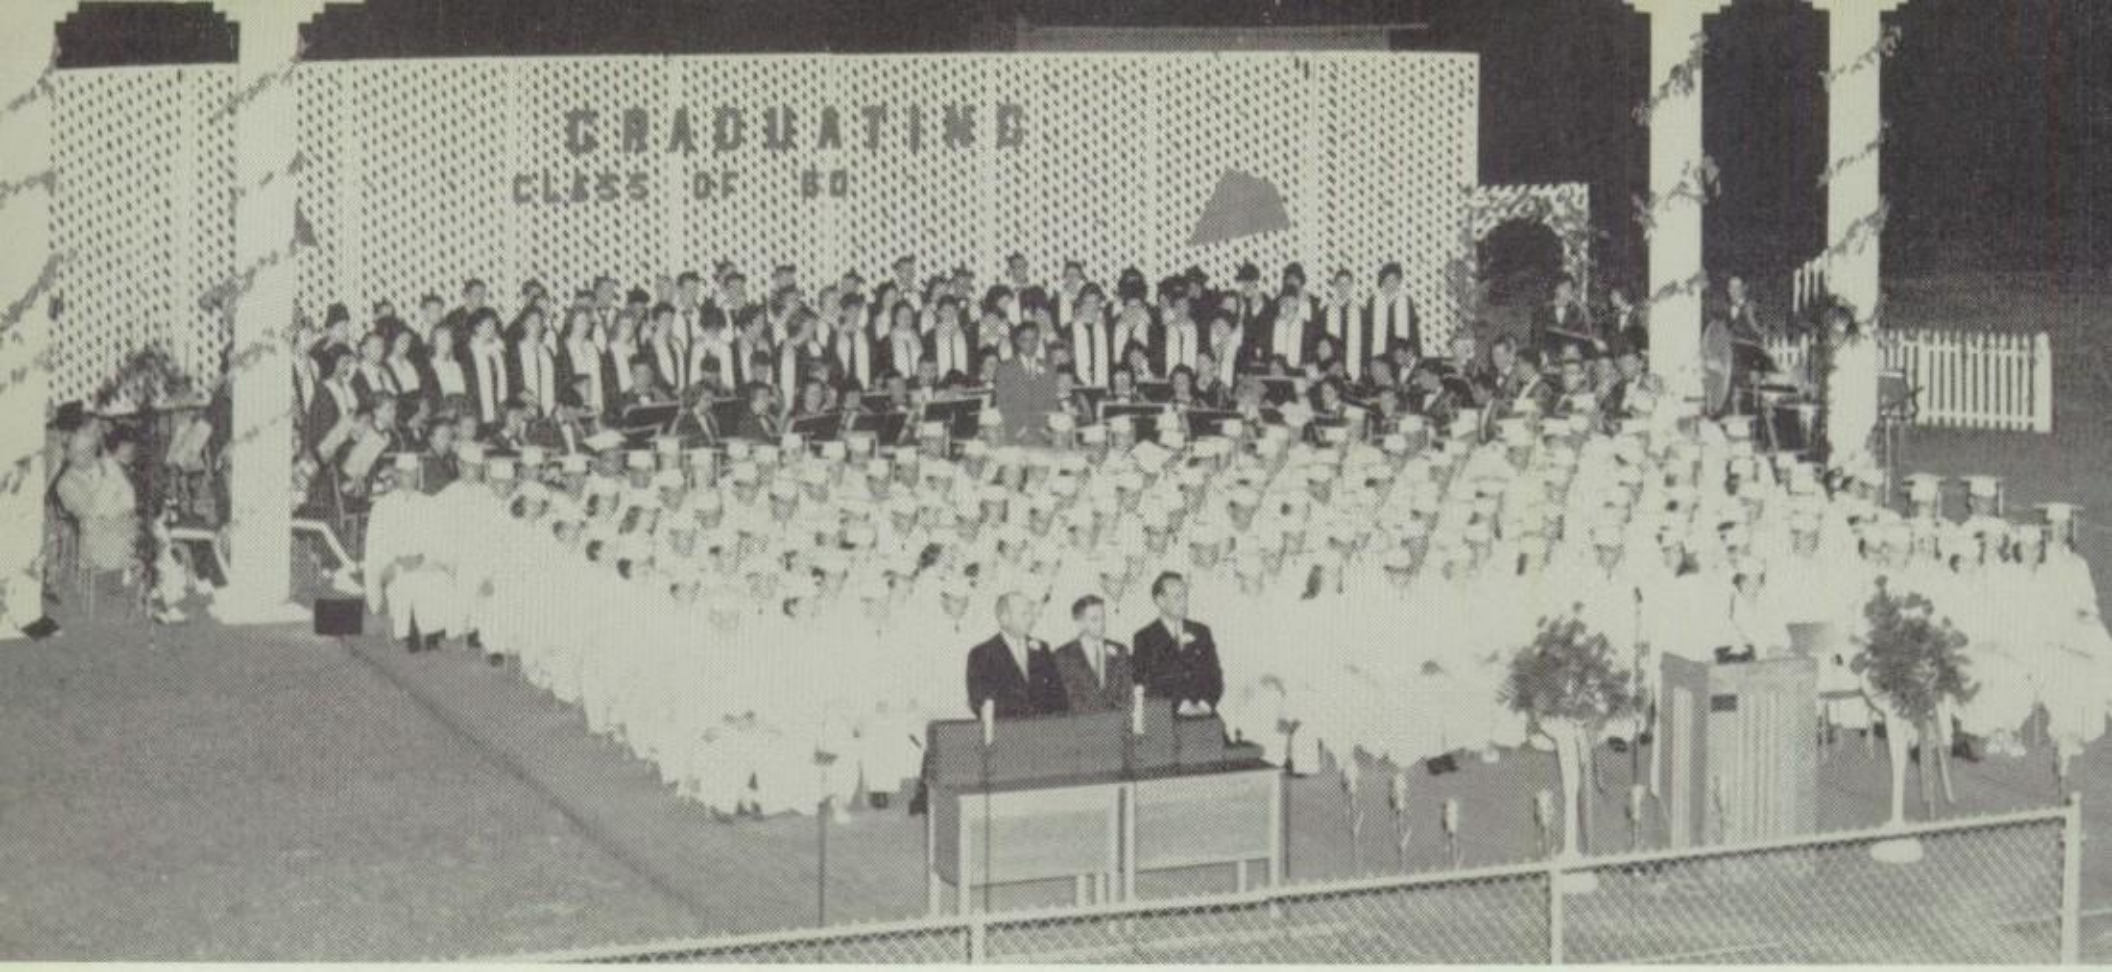
ACTIVITIES



"Seniors, classmates, faculty, and other friends . . . "

Silvija Buss delivers the valedictory address.

May 26, 1960, is more than "just another day" to a large group which received its M. B. Smiley High School diplomas that night.

A rainless night followed scattered showers of the afternoon to make a perfect atmosphere for that LAST TIME.

GRADUATION

Board President
M. L. Wheat

presents diplomas as

Principal P. M. Cauthen announces names.

"Look out, world, here we come!"

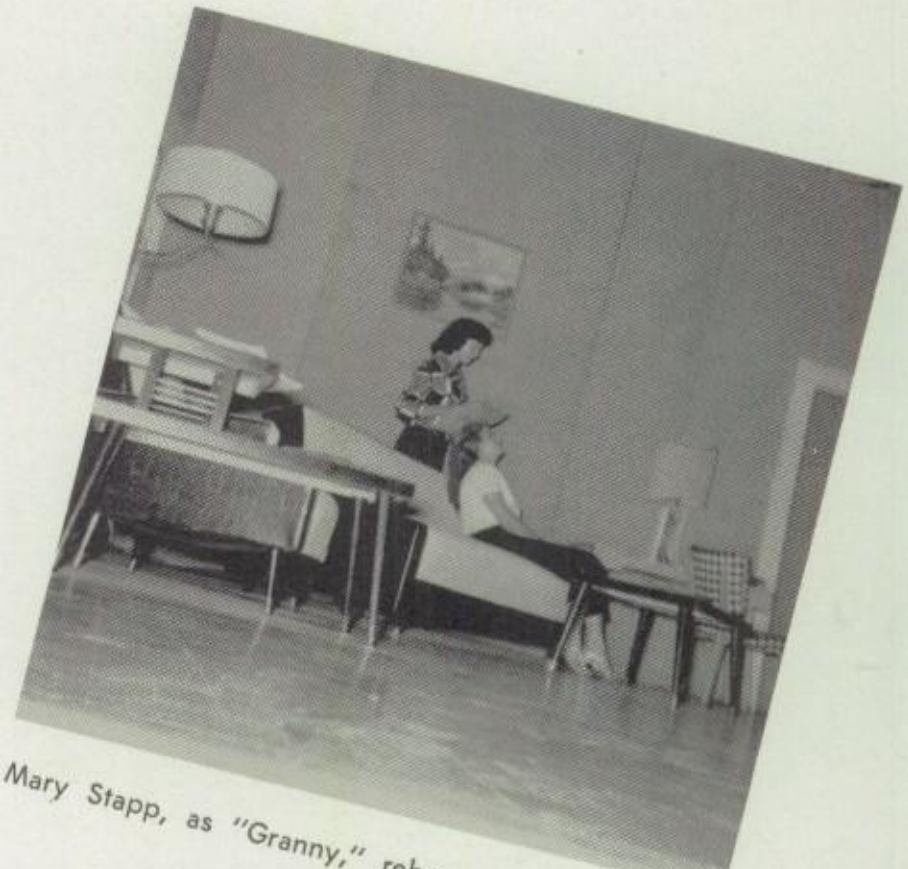
JUNIOR-S

The night of April 8 was cool and windy at Sylvian Beach but hearts were warm and gay as the juniors and seniors danced to the music of Les Brown and his orchestra.

NIOR PROM

JUNIOR PLAY

Another teen-age idea is hatched: Kenneth Davenport, Margaret Rhea, Sammy Calloway, and Ruth Karm.



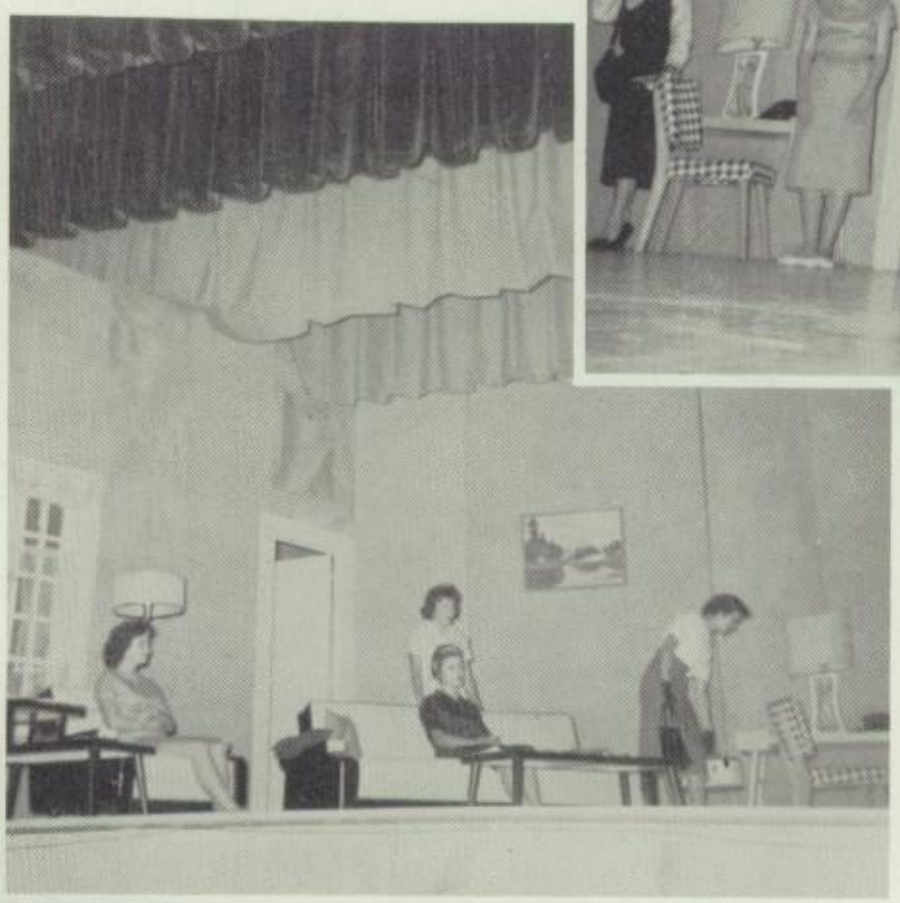
Mary Stapp, as "Granny," rehearses for Broadway.

Mrs. Brooks babbles all through the play.

"Stick 'em up" from Delma Knox earns him face full of pie from Ruth.

THE BABBLING BROOKS

Curtain call and . . .



"Granny" begins the fulfillment of her wish as she starts to New York.

Delma, reeking from a perfume soaking at a party, causes Ruth and Glenna Dawson to make smelly remarks.

The Brooks family consisted of one mother (Sheila Coleman), two daughters (Ruth Karm and Paula White), and one son (Delma Knox). The three younger Brooks, in hunting scoops for their paper, print a murder scheme overheard from two boarders who, unknown to others, write murder mysteries. Because the plot matched a murder in town just a day before, the whole family has problems before everything is solved.

. . . one last look before the stage set comes down.

Sylvia Buss, "Now, where is my Honey?"

"Hey, Man! Whatcha' doin'?" says Robert McCann to Billy Rose as Betty McCann looks on.

"The infant puts everything in its mouth," replies Patsie Denman to Billy Rose, LaRue Klieber, and Clyde Elliott.

SENIOR PLAY

In "The Little Dog Laughed" Laura Huntington returns home from college for the Summer. She is studying to be a psychologist and while she is home she analyzes everyone she comes in contact with. The analyses cause family friction but it is ironed out after a summer of unhappy experiences for all of them.

"Finding my peak."

Left to right: Linda Bond, Georgia Doggett, Linda Costelow, Ann Korn, and Lola Parker.

"I want you to know I'm a man."

Van Hemphill and Doretha Sutton watch as the family finds its peaks.

Fine way to treat a guest.

"Oh, my Honey!"

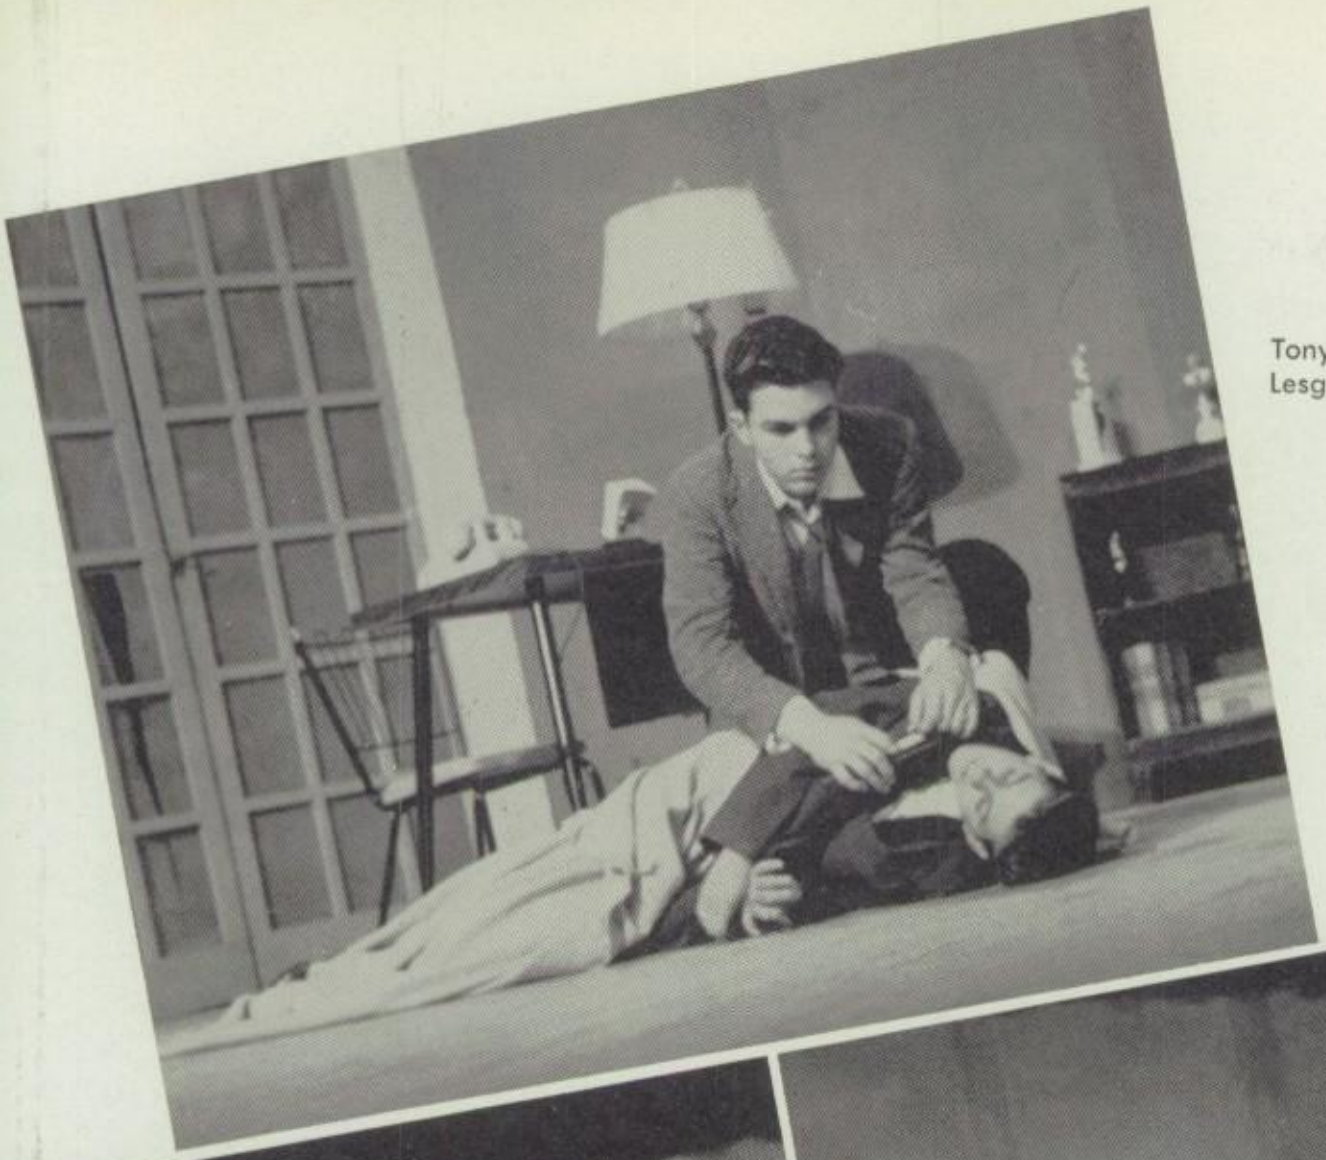
Dinnertime for James Hammer, Hugh Barrett, Jan Jarry, and Betty McCann.

ALL-SCHOOL PLAY

Tony Wendice (Michael Murphy) proposes to Capt. Lesgate (Tommy Mason) a plan to kill his wife.

Margot Wendice (Kathy Darnell) sees she has stabbed her attacker in the struggle.

Capt. Lesgate attempts to kill Margot Wendice (Linda Darnell).



Tony Wendice plants the blackmail letter on Capt. Lesgate.

Inspector Hubbard (Sammy Harrison) accuses Margot of killing Capt. Lesgate on purpose.

Max Holliday (Bob Stogstill) proves Tony is guilty by showing the inspector the payoff money Tony had for the Captain.

DIAL M FOR MURDER

Brutus, the Smiley mascot and symbol of strength, coupled with the night scene, taken at the bonfire before the Homecoming game with Aldine,—what better way to picture two of Smiley's biggest assets. It is strong and getting stronger, as it establishes more traditions to tie together the graduate and the student.

HOMECOMING BONFIRE

The Queen and her escort, Johnny Barron

She could have danced all night.

The tired photographers.

The Court poses for the camera.

The Homecoming Court of 1959

After the crowning, Queen Saundra mounts the throne.

Beverly Moore, the 1959 Queen, crowns Saundra

Saundra and Jerry Lamb begin the dance.
